THIRD READING

SB 102 (Cropsey)

SB 102 would rename the Ionia Maximum Correctional Facility, as the Jack Welborn Correctional Facility. Jack Welborn is well known in Michigan by those who work in, or are familiar with, the State's correctional system. From 1986 to 1994, when he retired from the Michigan Senate, Welborn was the chairperson of various Senate committees that considered legislation regarding the Department of Corrections, and corrections issues in general.

- SB 102 was moved to 3rd Reading. No amendments.

SB 170 (Patterson)

SB 170 would change current law to include an individual with whom a victim currently has or previously had a "dating relationship" in provisions relating to arrests in domestic violence situations. The changes made in this bill are technical in nature and make improvements to current relevant statutes.

- SB 170 was moved to 3rd Reading. No amendments.
